

Dear Chairman Powell,

I urge you and the FCC to preserve the current media-outlet ownership rules and to forestall further concentration of media resources in a few oligopolistic hands. Please act in the interest of American citizens, not corporations, and keep American media in a greater number of hands. Thank you.